Born: Tuesday, March 7, 1950

Died: Wednesday, September 7, 2016

On September the 7th the finest man I have ever known passed away. Ron Pollot was my friend my soulmate and my husband. He was also a father, grandfather and great grandfather. Ron was respected by those who really knew him and loved by many. He worked hard and played hard. He loved hunting and fishing but most of all he loved camping at Parks Ferry Campground on Lake Oconee and at Hard Labor Creek State Park. He is survived by his children Ron Jr. and Tiffany and 7 grandkids and 2 great grand kids. And of course me his wife of nearly 47 years. I will miss him forever and will love him even longer. A celebration of life is to be held on October 16, 2016 at 1 O'clock in the afternoon. The location of the service is as follows: 50 Summer Walk Court Covington, GA.
